

Keeping the Body in Repair

Nature intended that the body should do its own repairing—and it would do so were it not for the fact that most of us live other than a natural life.

Nature didn't intend that we should wear corsets, tight collars or shoes, nor live in badly ventilated and draughty houses, nor eat and drink some of the things that we do, nor ride in street cars when we should walk. The consequence is that the body when it gets out of order must look for outside help to make the necessary repairs.

For weak stomachs and the indigestion or dyspepsia resulting, and the multitude of diseases following therefrom, no medicine can be more pleasantly and a curative agent than DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

This famous Doctor's prescription has been recommended for over 40 years, and is today just as big a success. Restores a healthy appetite. Cleanses the blood. Strengthens the nerves. Regulates stomach and liver. Demand the original.

SLEEP FOR NERVOUS PERSON BILLIONS IN LIFE INSURANCE

Application of Warmth, Outside and Inside, Often Brings Slumber to Them.

A hot water bottle covered with flannel should be placed at the feet. A very thin silk tissue bag of rubber partially filled with cold water should be placed at the base of the brain. This bag can be about ten inches long and six inches wide, soft as silk and only half filled with cold water, so that it does not feel bulky back of the head. In many cases the patient goes to sleep within a few minutes with this treatment, because the blood is drawn from the active brain, which is one cause of insomnia.

When a patient is extremely nervous a cracker spread with butter and sprinkled slightly with cayenne pepper should be eaten. This warms the stomach. The stocking wound around the neck, not too close, yet rather snug, is an old method, for it does not retard the flow of blood from the head to the arteries, but it does retard the flow to the head, just as the cold water assists. All of these methods are simple, effective and harmless.

A cup of hot milk taken just before retiring will induce sleep. Those who hesitate about drinking the milk lest it cause constipation should remember that boiled milk, taken hot, acts as a laxative. It is only when it is cooled that it has the opposite effect.

MANY NIGHTS

First Tramp—Say, Raggy, did you ever see "Ten Nights in a Bar-room?"

Second Tramp—Tut, tut. I've seen ten hundred nights in a bar-room.

LOOKS THAT WAY.

Bill—It seems Switzerland is building a new railroad 13.5 per cent. of the line of which will be through tunnels.

Jill—Evidently making a strong bid for the honeymooners.

SOME DO.

"She's too poor for our circle. I smell gasoline on her. She evidently cleans her own gloves."

"Go slow, now. She may be one of these swaggar girls who knows how to adjust her own car."

ONLY PROPER THING.

"I saw a lady I knew smoking the other day, and she was put out when I caught her."

"What did you do?"

"Wrapped a rug around her and smothered the fire."

CONVINCED OF THE FACT.

"Jobbers wishes it distinctly understood that he is not in business for his health."

"I think that is understood quite clearly by everybody who has had business dealings with jobbers."

ITS NATURE.

"I see those jolly students throw their alarm clocks at one another."

"I call such amusement as that throwing away time."

A MISTAKE.

"I understand that grand opera singer has an unusually low voice."

"Nothing of the sort. Five dollars a ticket to hear it."

NECESSITY OF THE CASE.

"I don't care to read any of Jones' articles. He is so superficial."

"But he has to go deeply into this subject. It's about boring wells."

LITERAL.

"My dear, what on earth is the connection you have brought me?"

"It's starch water. Didn't you tell me you wanted a stiff drink?"

Policies in the United States and Canada—Now Aggregate $20,000,000,000.

The vast number of persons interested in life insurance is indicated in the statement that the life insurance now in force in the United States and Canada aggregates about $20,000,000,000, Leslie's remarks. The policies, which add up to this immense total, vary in face value from small to very large sums, but the great majority of them have been issued to persons of moderate means who cannot afford to risk payment of premium money to weak and unreliable companies. Fortunately, the leading life insurance organizations are very prosperous and have ample reserves, so that their responsibility is unquestioned, while they meet all obligations promptly and without raising mere technical points. The policyholders, therefore, justly feel that they have done the safe thing in securing insurance from these strong companies, which pay out yearly to the insured or their heirs an aggregate of more than $500,000,000. "This impressive fact furnishes a strong argument in favor of life insurance."

CHANCE AND THE CRICKETERS

British Enthusiasm Over Trifling Performances Aroused Scorn of the Baseball Manager.

While the New York American baseball team was training in Bermuda, a cricket match began between a couple of the island teams. At four o'clock every afternoon the teams used to knock off and drink tea. Mr. Chance, the New York manager of the baseball artists, viewed the cricket game with disfavor. One day he stood upon the sidelines, idly watching it. An outfielder made a brief run and caught a little pop-up fly. "Well caught, sir," roared an English enthusiast. "Well caught sir," Mr. Chance was pained. Pretty soon another outfielder ran for a long hit, and failed to catch it. The cricket fan at Chance's elbow approved anyhow. "Well run, sir," he bellowed. "Well run." Mr. Chance glared at him. A moment later an infielder tried to run, and fell on his face. It was Chance's chance. "Well fell, sir," he shouted. "Well fell."

NEW STANDARD.

Knicker—Is she interested in the tariff bill?

Bocker—Yes; she says she won't marry a man who doesn't pay an income tax.

HER PRIVILEGE.

"I suppose next women will be wanting to go to congress."

"I don't see why, when as it is, every married woman, at least, is speaker of the house."

EXTRAVAGANT AGE.

"Such extravagance!"

"How now?"

"His wife broke a $14 carpet sweeper over him. A broomstick would have done just as well."

HER PLACE.

"If you go in that store you will find Mildred at her stamping ground."

"Where is that?"

"The embroidery counter."

ITS NATURE.

"That marriage was one of propinquity."

"Nothing of the kind. It was because they were always thrown together."

CAUGHT BOTH WAYS.

"Snifkins does not seem to be enjoying his vacation."

"No; when his office isn't calling him up, his wife is calling him down."

SURE ENOUGH.

Yeast—Do you and your wife ever exchange any cross words?

Crimsonbank—How can we exchange 'em when she says 'em all?

OF AGONY.

Fred—I understand that Ethel's new dress is the last cry in harems.

Aimee—Yes; it's a regular scream.—Jack O'Lantern.

THEIR STATUS.

"Pop, what is a pyromaniac?"

"It's one of the people who do art work in burnt wood, my son."

The Real West Is Really Just Around the Corner Now

WHY, the trip only means one night on the train, and the cost of a month in these beautiful, body-building, memory-painting, healthy, glorious scenes is less than that of a vacation in the average nearby resort. Make this your Colorado summer. Take a genuine rest and take the whole family with you.

Rock Island Lines

provide the best service to Colorado. The very trip is a relaxation—splendid roadbed—luxurious ventilated sleepers—big berths and premier hotel cuisine.

If you can afford to go anywhere you can afford to spend the little bit of time and money necessary for this wonderful and stimulating experience. There are more things to do and more wonders to see than you can imagine, and the biggest surprise of all is the slight expense.
